Our Henry

(By Noble Alvin B. Tillinghast)

Who makes our butter, fresh and clean,
As yellow as the bright sunbeam,
And makes it from the best of cream?
Our Henry.

Who sends us buttermilk so fine
At every meeting of the Shrine,
Remuneration does decline?
Our Henry.

Whose ice cream do we always want?
The portions even Ed Kirk daunt,
(He eats no more because he caunt).
Our Henry's.

A Page in history is he,
A Page we always love to see,
And may he always prosperous be.
Our Henry.

OUR MIS-INFORMATION COUNTER

Noble T. B. Guitteau, Recorder: Dear Tom—If a young man takes his best girl to the theatre, spends $8 on a supper at the Body House after the performance, and then takes her home in a taxi, should he kiss her good-night? Yours in the faith, NOBLE WARREN E. BRANNON.

No, Warren, we don't think she ought to expect it. Seems to us you have done enough for her.
