

Thomas Henry Page

October 04, 1955 - December 31, 2011

Thomas Henry Page, 56, of Ottawa Hills, passed away suddenly December 31, 2011, of complications from chemo. Tom will be remembered for his shock of white hair, his beautiful blue eyes, his general happy demeanor, and his infectious laughter. He was a loyal friend of many, especially to his wife, Kathy of 33 years. His proudest moment was walking his daughter, Kristin; down the aisle in October as she married her best friend, Aaron Longacre. Tom was semi-retired and recently began consulting to Ohio colleges and universities. Over the years he served as a CPA for several Toledo firms, NAMSA, and The University of Toledo. He was a graduate of Ottawa Hills High School, Bowling Green State University, and The University of Toledo. He was an avid collector of memorabilia from his family's business, the Page Dairy, which closed in 1975, and was the keeper of stories from the family's many years in Toledo and Ottawa Hills. He was the son of the late Ann and Arnold Page, and is survived by his brother, Arnold Felicia; his sister, Debby Michael Schaeffer, his sister, Susan Culver Randal; his beloved dog, Lili; as well as many in-laws, cousins, nieces and nephews. Services will be held at 1 p.m., Friday, January 6, 2012, at Hope Lutheran Church, 2201 Secor Road, Ottawa Hills. Burial at the Historic Woodlawn Cemetery will be private. In lieu of flowers, please remember the Toledo Animal Shelter, 640 Wyman Street, Toledo, OH 43609. toledoanimalshelter.com LIVESTRONG
